

Clipping Animals

Steers must be shorn against the grain of the hair, they will be slick shorn over the entire body, including head, ears and feet. The switch of the tail may be left and untrimmed up the tail 1 foot from the base of the tail stub.

Lambs and Goats should be slick shorn from the hocks/Knees up

Swine should be clipped to the owner's choice

Let us know ASAP. Please do not wait till the last minute to ask for equipment or help with your projects.